ARDENT ACUMEN

Application for Thought Partnership

Please note, the information you disclose in this application will be treated as confidential and not disclosed in any way without your written permission, except to comply with a specific court order.

1. Briefly describe your “idea” (aka whatever you’d be working on with a thought parter).

2. What compels you to explore this idea?

3. What is your desired end state for this idea? How far into that journey are you?

4. What would it feel like to see this idea in its final, realized state (whatever that may be)?

5. How does your idea's advancement benefit humanity in some way?

6. Briefly describe any experience you've had with thought partnership in the past.

7. Why are you considering thought partnership for your idea at this stage?

8. Is there anything else you'd like to share?

Next Steps

- Schedule a no-obligation chemistry call at: https://calendly.com/katherine-sauer/chemistry . To request a different time, please use the Contact link in the footer at https://ardentacumen.com .
- Once scheduled, you'll receive a separate email in 1-2 business days, prompting you to reply with this application attached.